

HOT STUFF

"Reese held her kids' hands and rushed through the airport," witness Paul Schmidt tells Us of Witherspoon (with Toth on March 13).

REESE & JIM

Honeymoon With the Kids

The family hits Belize for a breezy getaway

TWO'S COMPANY, BUT FOUR'S a fiesta! With her children in tow, Reese Witherspoon, 35, and husband Jim Toth, 40 (who wed on March 26), journeyed south on April 4 for a low-key, six-day stay in Belize. "Most people didn't even know who they were," a witness tells Hot Stuff. The newlyweds — plus Ava, 11, and Deacon, 7 — bunked at two of director Francis Ford Coppola's luxury resorts during their visit: the Blancaneaux Lodge (located near a rainforest) and the beachside Turtle Inn, where a two-bedroom pavilion goes for $1,850 per night. Exploring local fare, the duo ate fish tacos and drank mojitos at Rumfish y Vino in Placencia on April 8, then returned to the eatery the next night with the kids after a boat ride. "They were extremely gracious and kind," the restaurant's owner, Pamela Solomon, tells Us. Another vacation memory? Says Solomon, "Deacon lost his tooth while they were here. They were all clapping and laughing about it!"

The clan (on Feb. 28) went for gelato in Placencia.